

5 good reasons to join us in ALL, the Association for Language Learning

- Keep up to date: via high quality publications, a specialist website, an e-mail update, local, regional and national events, and access to real colleagues in person and by e-mail.
- Evidence professional standards: updating your subject knowledge helps you to evidence the TDA professional standards and enhance your threshold and other applications.
- Get high quality professional development & networking opportunities: including regional events and the much acclaimed annual conference, 'Language World'. Join a local branch or network to meet like-minded professionals, contribute to the cause and benefit from high-quality professional development.
- Make your voice heard in policy making: would you like to have your say in what happens for Languages? Take part in government consultations and contribute to advice and discussion on proposed changes.
- Save money: benefit as a member from discounts on conference rates and publications, and special offers from publisher members of ALL. Remember that ALL fees are tax deductible!

Current membership packages are to be found at http://www.all-languages.org.uk/membership_join_online.asp

A special Associate membership (with reduced benefits) is available free of charge to teachers in training and in their NQT year. Details from http://www.all-languages.org.uk/associate_membership_form.asp

Associate membership includes

- ❖ access to the latest news and policy developments for language teachers through the weekly ALLnet e-mail bulletin
- ❖ access to the ALL website
- ❖ special offers on books and resources
- ❖ access to local events

You are also welcome to attend any other ALL event if you are travelling around.

Associate Membership does not include access to the Association's publications; if you wish to receive these, you should apply for an Individual Membership (at a special rate for trainee teachers.) You should also consider upgrading your membership once the Associate Membership expires at the end of this year.
